Add-on course (History department)

2022-23

Title of the course: Renaissance in Europe

The Renaissance was a period of drastic change in cultural, religious, artistic, economic, scientific and political arena. It is considered as 'Re-birth' in middle age of Europe. It takes place from 14th century to 17th century. Renaissance promoted rediscovery geographical exploration, scientific discoveries and also that led to colonialism and capitalism. It was a process that changed perspective of each aspect of life, not only in Europe; but in the whole world. From religious change (Reformation) to monarchy to democracy; it affected various aspects. Renaissance in Europe was an imperative factor that affected the whole world. Therefore, it is necessary to understand it in details. This course was conducted to fulfil this purpose.

Seventeen students enrolled in the add-on course this year. Prof. M. H. Makwana introduced the course and defined what is renaissance. He explained geographical discoveries and result of renaissance. Prof. Manharbhai Desai took guest lecture on reflection of renaissance in Europe. Prof. M. B. Deshmukh explained causes of renaissance, its social impact, and how it led to reformation in Europe. Dr. Vandana Parmar elaborated discoveries in renaissance period, contribution of poets and philosophers. Later, she discussed renaissance and its impact on the world in details. Thus, this course successfully completed in fifteen days.
