ADD-ON COURSE REPORT

“SELF EMPLOYMENT TRAINING”

Creating a self -controlled employment opportunity that suits his own skills for self -employment. The concept of self -employment is as ancient as the development of human culture. At the beginning of human culture, human beings did some productive activities to satisfy their needs. With the growth of the human population, it is difficult for the government to provide proper employment as it has become more important as an effective remedy for self -employment unemployment in the modern age. The cell was organized as part of our efforts to have economic empowerment among women at the time of unemployment burning question today.

At present, the demand for the market is high and some of the best options that can be started with low investment are included in this course. Such as different types of bath soap, candle making, balm making, making cold creams, different types of embroidered etc. Are trained in the wedding ceremony, including the trend of decorating everything in the wedding ceremony. In addition to the information provided by the professors of the department, a guest lecture was set up to raise awareness about self -employment. In which Professor Deeptiben Nimavat gave good information on how to get a loan with excellent examples of self -employed and the government's financial assistance scheme for self -employment. From 29/01/2024 to 14/02/2024 In this training program, 28 students got the training by registering. The course was successful.
