**Subject:** Organizing a Programme on Domestic Violence and Women Security

The Internal Complaints Committee convened on 16/02/2023 to discuss the organization of a programme focused on raising awareness about domestic violence and women security. The meeting was chaired by Prof. Dr. Marina Chauhan, with all committee members in attendance. The discussion highlighted the pressing issue that many girls and women are not fully aware of their rights, which significantly impedes their ability to access necessary protections and support. To address this gap, the committee resolved to organize an awareness programme specifically targeting women's rights related to domestic violence and security.

The committee decided to invite Dr. Soniyaben Joshi to lead the programme as the guest speaker, given her expertise and experience in the field. The event was scheduled for 20/02/2023. The committee members actively participated in the discussion, contributing valuable insights and suggestions to ensure the success of the initiative. The meeting concluded on a positive note, with a clear plan in place to enhance awareness and education on critical issues affecting women's safety and rights. The meeting was called in order to organise programme on creating awareness on domestic violence and women security. Prof. Pushpaben Garasia was the chair of the meeting. All Committee members were presented in the meeting. After a long discussion, it was concluded that girls and women are unaware of their rights therefore they are not able to access it. To fulfil the purpose, the committee decided to organise a programme that create an awareness on women's rights regarding domestic violence and women security. The committee decided to invite Dr. Soniyaben Joshi. The programme date was decided on 20/02/2023. The meeting was successful to make decision regarding to organise such a programme. Committee members actively participated in the meeting.

Programme on Domestic Violence and Women Security

Date: 20/02/2023

Total number of Students: 53

Duration: 1:00 to 2: 30

Resource Person: Dr. Soniyaben Joshi (Assistant Professor in Law College, Modasa)

The Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) of Shri S. K. Shah & Shrikrishna O. M. Arts College, Modasa, organized a programme on 20/02/2023 to raise awareness about domestic violence and women security. This initiative was part of the college's ongoing efforts to address women's issues and improve awareness of women's rights. Coordinated under the G-20 Programme by Dr. Mo. Hafizbhai Kathiyara and supported by Dr. Iswarbhai Chaudhary, the event aimed to educate female students and faculty members on their legal rights and the measures available for their protection. With the principal, Dr. Dipakbhai Joshi, providing guidance, the programme featured a lecture by Dr. Soniyaben Joshi, an Assistant Professor from the Law College in Modasa.

Dr. Joshi delivered an insightful lecture that highlighted the various legal provisions and rights available to women in cases of domestic violence. She also provided essential information on women's security, offering practical advice and resources to help women protect themselves and seek assistance when needed. The programme saw active participation from both girl students and professors, who engaged in discussions and asked pertinent questions. The event successfully achieved its objective of enhancing awareness about women's rights and security, reinforcing the college's commitment to supporting and empowering its female community members.
