Rangoli, and Mehdi competition

Date: 01-10-2019

Duration: 12:00 to 2: 00

On 01-10-2019, the Women Development Cell and the Department of Home Science at Shri S. K. Shah & Shrikrishna O. M. Arts College, Modasa, convened a meeting to organize the upcoming Rangoli and Mehdi competitions. Chaired by Prof. Pushpaben Garasia, the meeting included committee members Dr. Harshaben Rakhasia and Dr. Vandana Parmar. The meeting focused on finalizing details for the event scheduled on 07-10-2019, including setting the time and venue, which was decided to be from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm in the Department of Home Science. The committee meticulously allocated responsibilities: Prof. Garasia would oversee the event, Dr. Rakhasia would handle logistics and venue setup, and Dr. Parmar would manage promotions and participant registrations.

The committee also discussed strategies to maximize student participation, such as promoting the competition through posters and classroom announcements. They agreed to highlight the cultural significance of Rangoli and Mehdi to inspire more students to take part. Judging criteria were established, emphasizing creativity and presentation, and it was decided to invite external judges for impartiality. Prizes for the top three participants in each category were planned, and refreshments for participants and attendees were arranged. The meeting concluded with the setting of another meeting on 05-10-2019 to finalize the event's preparations, ensuring everything would be ready for a successful and engaging competition.

Report on Rangoli and Mehdi Competitions

Women Development Cell & Department Of Home Science

Event Details:

- Event Date: 07-10-2019
- Time: 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm
- Venue: Department of Home Science

The Women Development Cell and the Department of Home Science at Shri S. K. Shah & Shrikrishna O. M. Arts College, Modasa, successfully organized the Rangoli and Mehdi competitions on 07-10-2019. The event was meticulously planned and executed, providing a platform for students to showcase their creativity and cultural skills. The main objectives of the competitions were to celebrate and promote cultural art forms, encourage student participation in extracurricular activities, and foster a sense of community and collaboration among students.

A total of 35 students participated in the competitions, with 15 students competing in the Rangoli competition and 20 in the Mehdi competition. The event began with an inauguration ceremony by Prof. Pushpaben Garasia, who emphasized the importance of preserving cultural traditions through such competitions. Participants in the Rangoli competition created intricate designs using a variety of materials, while Mehdi competitors showcased their skills with elaborate and detailed mehdi patterns. The judges were highly impressed by the creativity and precision displayed by the participants, making the judging process challenging. The event concluded with a prize distribution ceremony where the winners were awarded certificates and trophies.

The competitions received positive feedback from both participants and attendees. Students appreciated the opportunity to express their artistic talents and requested more such events in the future. The judges also commended the college for organizing a well-structured and enjoyable competition. The Rangoli and Mehdi competitions were a resounding success, fulfilling their objectives of promoting cultural arts and encouraging student engagement. The Women Development Cell and the Department of Home Science extend their gratitude to all participants, judges, and organizing committee members for their contributions to the event's success.
